Civil Service Criminal Representation

As a civil service employee, you have logged years of hard work and built a successful career. You look forward to enjoying your retirement with the life-long benefits of a guaranteed pension and comprehensive health insurance. But one big mistake can put all that at risk. Either an off-the-job arrest or an on-the-job accusation of misconduct could cause your employer to file disciplinary charges against you. Your employment could be terminated, leaving you with only the retirement benefits earned up to that date. The attorneys of Watford Jackson, PLLC have more than 40 years' combined experience...

Client & Attorney Testimonials

Excellent Law Firm. I met Attorney Gregory Watford over 20 years ago in New York City at a networking event hosted by my company. He became a good friend who I later found myself in need of his legal services to represent me in a case involving a conflict with a patron at one of my social events. Mr. Watford stepped in as a friend first, and an attorney second. He prepared me for what I needed to know and assured me that everything would be fine. He was right. Mr. Watford represented me, quickly got the case dismissed and helped me get my mind back on my business. I am proud to call him a friend. He is one of the best.

There is no one out there who will represent your interests better than Joey Jackson. He truly cares about each and every one of his clients and invests his heart and soul in their representation. Joey is a consummate professional, a passionate advocate, and stellar trial lawyer. His knowledge of the intricacies of the law - and, more importantly - his understanding of how the law will affect YOU in the context in which you find yourself, is unparalleled. I would recommend Joey without reservation to anyone looking for the very best legal representation. Moreover, beyond his talents as a lawyer, he is a truly great human being, and that can only benefit you as his client. People want to work with Joey. He is well respected in the industry not only for his intellect and advocacy, but for his compassion and intuition. He is simply the best
